Temari Sushi Making

In its continuing series of teaching Japanese culture to children, the chapter offered a "How to Make Temari Sushi" class, temari meaning hand balls. A session was held last month at the Japanese American Community Center in San Mateo with almost 35 children and adults attended and learned how to make this special sushi and how to make tsukemono: Japanese pickles.

Tanforan Banquet and Fundraiser

The 75th anniversary of the signing of the E.O. 9066 at the Tanforan banquet and fundraiser at the San Mateo Marriott on Saturday, February 18, 2017. The film "Tanforan", a documentary by Dianne Fukami will be shown along with entertainment by the Grateful Crane Ensemble. Tickets are $95 and can be purchased by emailing Steve Okamoto at "steveokamoto1@gmail.com"

Millbrae Japanese Cultural Festival

On October 1st, San Mateo JACL participated in our fourth year of having a booth at this 12th annual event. We shared an informational booth and provided a koi flag art activity for the children in attendance. There was a great turn out at the event, and as always, had a blast eating fresh mochi, enjoying the skillful dances and singing, and creating the different colored koi flag art.
